Intelligent Checking account eligibility for qualifying rate and reward features is subject to the Account Requirements. Accounts that do not satisfy each of these conditions for a particular month will receive the non-qualifying rate for that month. For any month in which the account does not satisfy the qualifying conditions, there will be no fee reimbursement and the account will receive the non-qualifying dividend rates.

Intelligent Checking Program Terms

Qualifying period: The qualifying period ends the day before the last day of the calendar month.

- New Checking Accounts: A new checking account will receive the qualifying rate for the first statement cycle even if the account has not met all of the requirements. For the month following the first month, the account must meet all of the requirements in order to receive the qualifying rate and rewards.
- Existing Checking Account Conversions: Existing accounts converted to Intelligent Checking may qualify to receive the qualifying dividend rate and rewards beginning on the first day of the month following the month in which the account is converted. Example: Conversion took place on March 15th. The start of the qualifying period would be April 1st.
- Business Checking Accounts do not qualify.
